Meet Me at the Stone Table: Lessons from Narnia

C.S. Lewis knew how to witness to children. This talk uses examples from Lewis's Narnia series to improve your witness to family, friends, neighbors, and co-workers of all ages. You do not have to have read THE LION, THE WITCH, AND THE WARDROBE or any of the other Narnia books to benefit from this talk.

Mother Goose Christians

"Humpty Dumpty sat on a wall,
"Humpty Dumpty had a great fall."

Sound familiar? It does if your parents raised you on Mother Goose rhymes or you are reading them to your own children. But what does a cute verse about a broken egg have to do with God? (Um, isn't there a story in Genesis about a fallen and broken man named Adam?) I will use Mother Goose rhymes to illustrate our sinful nature and encourage you in your walk with Christ.

A Cinderella Story

What do you and I have in common with Cinderella? Her prince went looking for her just as our Prince comes looking for us. Invite Cinderella to your meeting and get a different perspective on Christ's relationship with his bride, the Church.

Daddy's Little Girl

Did you have a loving father when you were growing up? Did you want to be just like him? Or did you have an absent or cruel father? This talk draws parallels—and distinctions—between our relationships with our earthly fathers and our relationship with our heavenly Father.
